ORACLE

Don,
To a real great guy.
To bad you couldn't have stayed at Carlisle this year for you missed a real good time, but I guess you've had at good times in Cal. Take your care of yourself and sometimes remember
Bert Nye

Don,
This year has been a wild year. It looks as if you left too soon. I hope you are having a good time. I hope to see you sometime.

Foreword

As time marches on, progress is inevitable. This year Carlisle High School has seen new band uniforms, new lab equipment, new gym apparatus, new books, new teachers, and even a new school building.

But progress is not confined to material elements. Sophomores are becoming juniors, and juniors are becoming seniors. From the day they were old enough to attend grade school, seniors have been climbing the steps, one by one, towards graduation. Our school and community will see more progress in years to come as CHS graduates go on striving upward throughout life.

In Memoriam

Mr. C. Maynard Gillaugh, whose life was taken in a tragic automobile accident on September 24, 1964, endeared himself to two generations of students at Carlisle Area Senior High School. With his outstanding personality and superior sense of humor he served the Carlisle School System as a science teacher, a vice-principal, and a director of testing, for a total of 37 years. Mr. Gillaugh worked dilligently for the CATA scholarship which has now been named in his honor, and he also promoted numerous community welfare projects. To his memory, we dedicate this 1965 Oracle.

Don

Somehow they took this picture while I was at work, I can't remember ever working so I can't tell you when they took it. We had a lot of fun last year & I hope you move to Norfolk so we can have even more. They say you can surf in VA. But I don't know how it will rate with what you have had for fun last year. We will have to try and scare some sharks or at least run from some. My address is changing like the winds so I'm sure we will meet again

No Matter How You

Upon arriving at CHS, students see the flag blowing softly in the breeze.

Even from the back, CHS is looked upon with awe and admiration.

Many trophies are displayed in this attractive trophy case.

Look at It . . .

Much paperwork is involved in the administration of CHS.

Students often look wistfully to the outside world.

Nor rain, nor snow, nor sleet, nor hail will keep a CHS student from his work.

Hurried conversation is heard and after-school plans are made between classes.

CHS Is a School to

Be Proud of

Center stairway addition at CHS

New students are always impressed by the entrance to CHS.

CHS landscaping adds to the attractiveness of the school.

Practical education is given to many girls who learn by using the latest equipment.

Pleasant Atmosphere

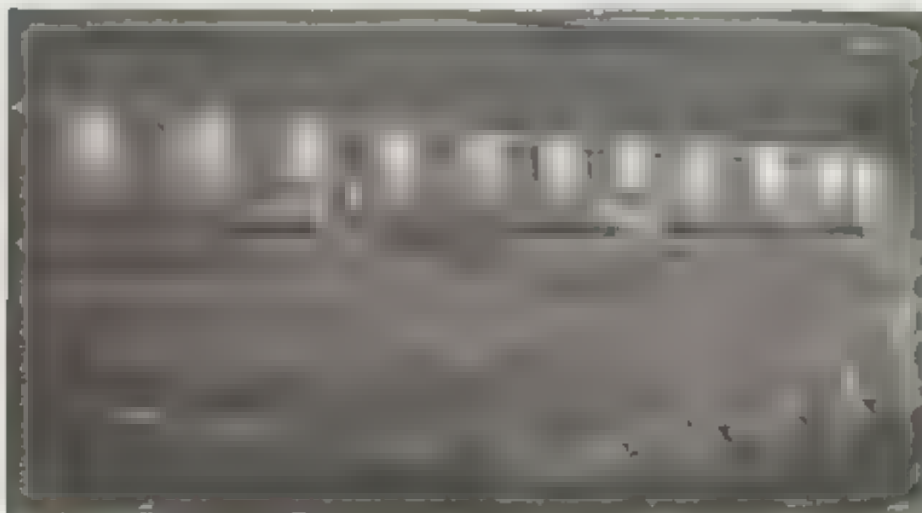

Facilities in the library are excellent for research and pleasure reading.

A glimpse of the beautiful countryside adds brightness to the school day.

Knowledge gained in modern biology labs proves helpful to future college students.

Interesting programs are seen in the spacious auditorium.

Encourages Learning

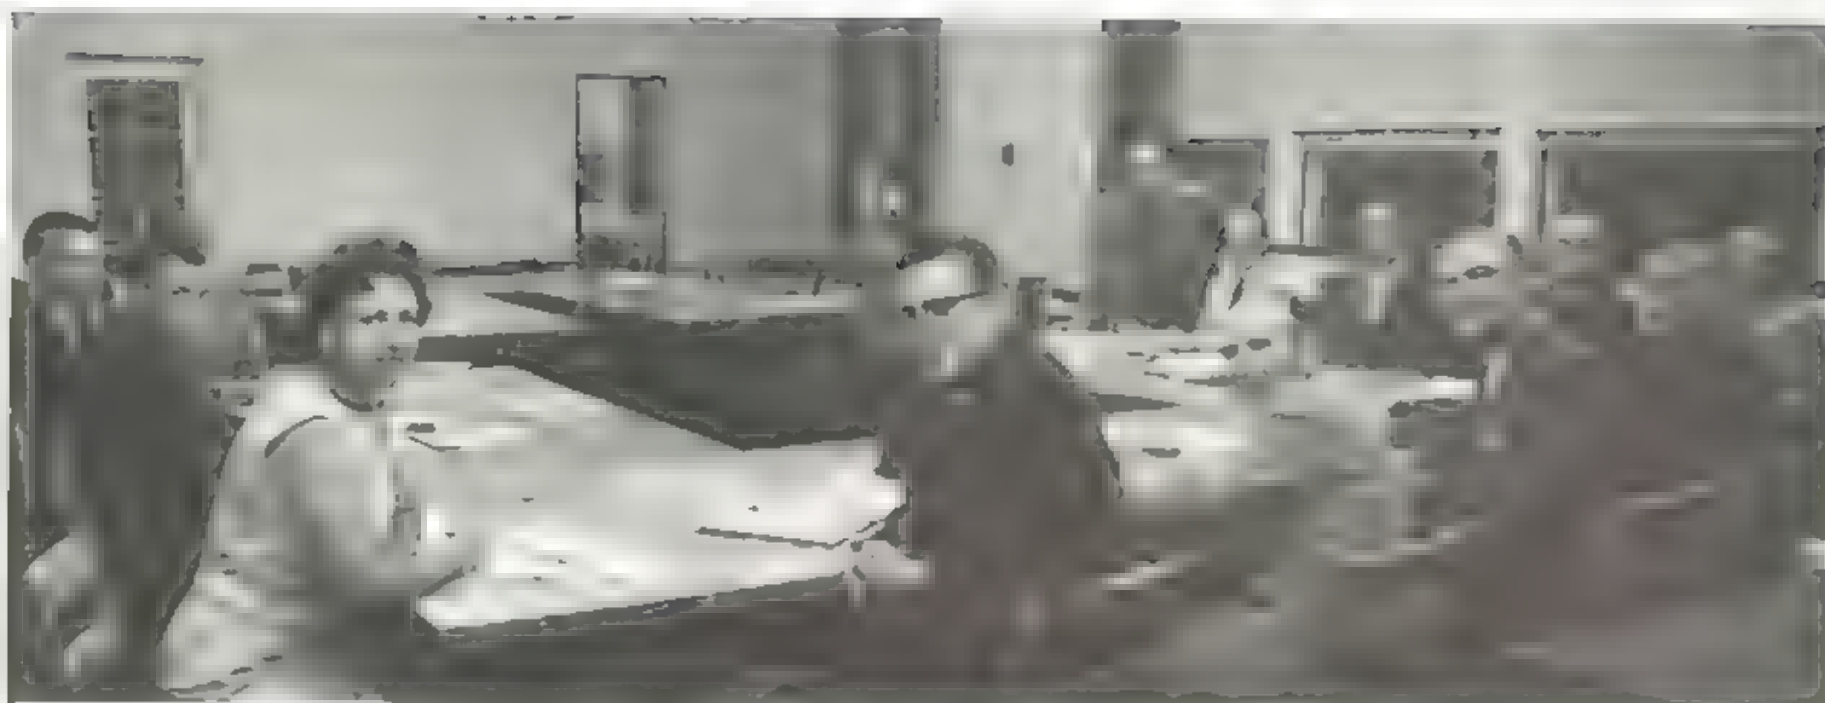

CHS doors are never closed to an interested student.

Harold North Assumes New Post

Superintendent of Carlisle Public Schools, David L. Swartz, and his assistant, Harold L. North, who was this year assigned to this responsibility, have the difficult task of administering and coordinating the instructional programs of the Carlisle Schools. Since the new intermediate school is to be completed by the beginning of the 1965 school term, much of their time this year had to be spent in making plans and reorganizing the curriculum in order to coordinate the work of the three schools, and to organize the change over from the K-6-3-3 system to the K-6-2-2-2 system.

Superintendent Swartz is also active in community service. A member of the Carlisle Rotary Club, he also serves on the Hospital Board, and the American Red Cross Board. He was one of the fourteen school administrators selected by the American Association of School Administrators to evaluate the programs of West German schools in April, 1964. He is at present a member of the Advisory Committee of the American Association of School administrators.

Mr. North, who is also general superintendent of his church school, said his CHS task includes planning courses, studying different techniques, and selecting teachers. He hopes to enable every student of the secondary schools to recognize his potential and realize his ambitions.

Checking over the administrative details, Superintendent D. L. Swartz and Assistant Superintendent H. L. North plan good coordination for the three secondary schools.

Principal Mark N. Burkhart checks enrollment figures and is pleased to find the small number of dropouts.

Principal Mark Burkhart, who says that he would like to see fewer dropouts at CHS, makes sure that each member of the student body gets a good education. This year he helped plan the educational program of the intermediate high school, now under construction.

Vice-principal Dale Reinecker, newly appointed assistant to Principal Mark Burkhart, is responsible for the conduct of the students while they are at the Carlisle Senior High School. Also, he is the member of the administration who has the unpleasant job of disciplining students who need disciplining. Among his dreams is the day when no disciplinary actions are needed.

Increased Enrollment Busies Them

Vice-principal Reinecker smiles as he greets a visitor.

Mr. Leo Johns takes time out from his busy schedule to greet a student.

Counselors Guide Students

Guiding CHS students proved interesting for Counselors Leo Johns and Lester Etter. Mr. Johns helped General, Vocational, and Commercial students find jobs, while Mr. Etter helped College Preparatory students find colleges. PSAT tests were given to college-bound juniors, while a Workers' Conference was held to answer questions and help seniors who wanted employment after graduation. Both Mr. Johns and Mr. Etter helped students with course elections and solving of any problems which arose. Since he came here from the Junior High, Mr. Etter already knew many of the Senior High students who welcomed him to his new position.

Mrs. Polly Green asks Mr. Lester Etter's advice on a letter.

This year E. I. Eastep began his twenty-sixth year as Director of Adult and Vocational Education. As head of the vocational department, Mr. Eastep was kept busy administering both school work and the adult educational classes in which former students were given an opportunity to improve their skills in the areas of employment and hobbies.

Secretaries Mrs. Kathryn Frederick and Miss Delores Cohick helped keep things running smoothly in the office by typing the daily announcements, answering the telephone, recording the day's absentee list, answering everyone's questions, and taking care of numerous odds and ends given to them by teachers and Mr. Burkhart.

Although busy, Mr. Eastep is willing to answer a question.

Busy Bees Accomplish Much

Secretaries Mrs. Kathryn Frederick and Miss Delores Cohick check the school's enrollment list.

Ever Faithfuls Give Assistance

Mrs. Millen marks her chart while Dr. J. B. Sabol checks the blood pressure of a student.

Checking the health of CHS students is just one of the various jobs of the nurse, Mrs. Evelyn Millen, and the dental hygienist, Miss Delores Costarella. Mrs. Millen gave the seniors the TB Tine test, and Miss Costarella cleaned teeth for grade school children.

Miss Costarella checks a student for cavities.

Our efficient librarians, Mrs. Lucille Harbison and Mrs. Harriet Keller, look over a new book in the library.

Over 6464 volumes are found in the CHS library. Although seniors' research essays brought most seniors to the library, many students used the library for leisure-time reading of magazines and newspapers. Between 500 and 1,000 new volumes are added to the library each year. The first five weeks of school were spent in training the sophomores in the use of the library. Mrs. Keller had 17 sections this year, and she said that each one received a test at the end of the training.

The cafeteria cooks, J. Boldosser, F. Schreffler, E. Wagner, B. Martin, C. Adams, J. Pittenger, M. Danner, M. Myers, B. Stouffer, and B. Vaughn look for the hungry students.

Mrs. Dorothy Stearns makes sure the strict dietary rules are followed.

Nine cooks prepare the nutritious meals served in the Senior High School Cafeteria. Strict attention is paid to sanitation regulations. Every attempt is made to provide meals that are colorful and appetizing.

Mrs. Stearns, cafeteria supervisor for the eight cafeterias in the Carlisle District, holds a B.S. degree in Home Economics from the Pennsylvania State University. All menus are planned by Mrs. Stearns and conform to the Type A lunch which has been established by the National School Lunch Program. This meal furnishes from one-half to one-third of the daily nutritional needs of the students.

They Make the Day Right

Alfred Bohn, Earl Smith, Verna Ott, and Clarence Kepner tidy up the lobby.

KNEELING: R. Wolfe, S. Rickrode, L. Stone, C. Miller, G. Raudabaugh. STANDING: J. Leer, G. Thrush, H. Evans, L. Farnner, M. Raudabaugh, N. Lybrand, bus drivers, wait to leave.

This year instruction in English placed greater emphasis on individual progress in composition, vocabulary, reading skills, listening ability, and writing and spelling effectively. All classes made use of speech records for literary interpretation and overhead projectors for improving composition work. A new movie projector has also been added to the equipment of the department.

James Bowers, English and humanities teacher, coaches CHS's junior varsity football team.

Mrs. Mary Clendening, English II teacher, works crossword puzzles in her spare time and enjoys collecting stamps and coins.

Mrs. Janice Cohen, English II teacher and adviser to the Junior Activities Committee, enjoys reading and listening to music.

Miss Isabelle Hoover, who teaches English IV and advises the F.T.A. Club and ORACLE, is head of the English Department. Last summer she traveled to New York and Canada.

Miss Margaret Gardner, who teaches drama and English III, was in charge of the publicity of the Junior Class Play. She spends part of each summer in Maine.

Individual Progress Is Encouraged

Miss Lorraine Kerr's interests are bridge, reading, and golf. During the past summer she visited Cape Cod. She is an English II and IV teacher at CHS.

Mr. Walter Kirsch, who teaches English III and the novel, likes to listen to jazz and classical music. He teaches Sunday School and likes reading.

Mr. Edwin Prettyman, teacher of senior English, is the co-adviser of the Senior Activities Committee and is in charge of the Budget Club. He is interested in music, reading, bridge, and politics.

Miss Jean Ruhl, besides instructing English, also teaches geography and CH&E, enjoys skiing, bridge, painting, and playing the piano.

Miss Dilys Schuettler, PERISCOPE adviser, teaches humanities, world literature, journalism, and English IV. Collecting Hummel figures, reading, and playing bridge are interests.

Mrs. Ruth Walz, who teaches English III and IV is the adviser of the Charm Club. Also she helped to costume the Senior Play.

Mrs. Helen Ward teaches English II and III and IV, is the adviser of the Charm Club. Also writes poetry and is interested in sewing, knitting, and other handicraft.

Using the language lab again this year, the Foreign Language Department furthered the knowledge of French, Latin, and Spanish by CHS students.

Miss Mary Merkle, Language Department head, advises the cheerleaders. She enjoys reading and knitting.

Miss Anna M. Thomas, French teacher and adviser of the French Club, likes to read and play bridge in her spare time.

Miss Sandra Weary teaches Spanish I and French I and II. She traveled to Mexico during the summer. Her interests include her sister's dancing school and collecting books and records.

Warren Beckman teaches Speech and English at CHS. He reads during his spare time and enjoys collecting antique locks and keys.

Miss Caroline Nolen, who instructs all Latin sections and one class of French I, is also organist at a local church. She also enjoys reading and sewing.

Preparing speech notes occupies Warren Beckman's time during a free period.

Teachers Have Many Interests in and Out of School

With the addition of overhead projectors and Mr. Trexler, new geometry and vocational mathematics teacher, the Mathematics Department, set out to teach students more about the world of mathematics.

Miss Martha Adams, teacher of mathematics analysis, Algebra II, and advanced mathematics, is head of the Mathematics Department. She likes to read and to play bridge.

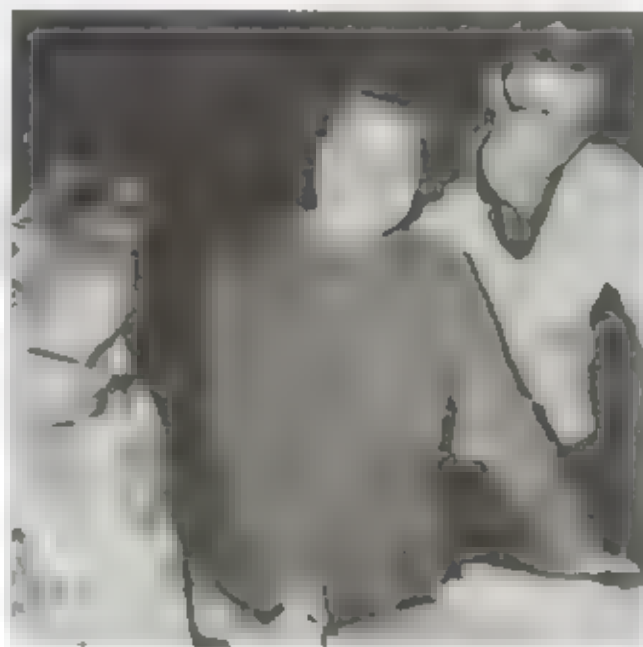

George Bradley teaches business and general mathematics, advises the Projection Club, and enjoys hunting, fishing, and loading shells. Last summer he visited Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and the New England states.

Richard Hammann studied last summer at Ohio State University. Besides teaching geometry he also helps instruct the humanities course and advises the Future Teachers' Club.

Dennis Kelleher plays golf, chess, and tennis when not in school teaching Algebra II. Like many other CHS teachers he visited the World's Fair and studied at Penn State last summer.

Donald Trexler, geometry and vocational mathematics instructor and the backfield coach at CHS, coaches Little League teams during the summer.

State Laws Require More History

Stressing current history, economics, and world cultures more this year than in the past, the Social Studies Department teaches CHS students about what is and what was going on in the world.

Warren F. Coolidge teaches current history and economics and is one of the teachers of the humanities course. He is also the faculty adviser of the Student Council. In his free time Mr. Coolidge likes swimming, playing chess, reading, and listening to good music.

Raymond S. Gabler, U.S. history teacher, is the coordinator of clubs at CHS and head of the Social Studies Department. As a member of the "Area D" WORLD CULTURES STUDY COUNCIL, he helped prepare teaching guides.

David M. Heckler teaches current history and health, coaches varsity basketball and junior varsity baseball, and enjoys water skiing and photography.

J. Wesley James, JV basketball coach, teaches world cultures, collects coins, and is superintendent of the Intermediate Department of his church school.

Kenneth R. Millen, U.S. history teacher, is Director of Athletics and Director of Intramural Athletics. He enjoys golf. During the past summer, he traveled to Cape Cod and the World's Fair.

Stanley Q. Morgan, Jr., head track coach and football line coach, teaches world cultures.

E. Bard Rupp teaches psychology and geography and is the faculty manager of athletics. He enjoys all sports and collecting coins.

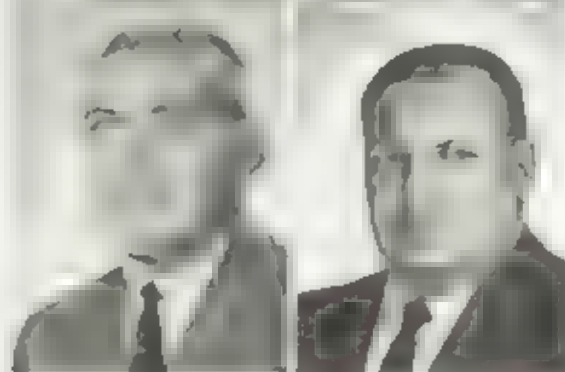

John C. Whitehead teaches U.S. history. Coaching the varsity football team occupies much of his time.

William A. Woods, world cultures and physical education teacher, assists with the Gym Club and is head wrestling and assistant football coach. He enjoys hunting.

Improving Talents Busies Them

The art, music, and safety courses are becoming more and more popular each year.

Fred Barkley, art teacher and adviser of the Art Service Club, bowls and visits art shows in his spare time.

Clyde Barr, instrumental music and band instructor, enjoys photography and programming at a summer camp.

Mrs. Joan Boytim teaches vocal music at CHS. Sewing and cooking are among her hobbies.

Thomas Peck, CHS safety and driver education teacher, travels all around Carlisle teaching people the right way to drive.

The Health and Physical Education Department this year acquired new classroom and gymnasium equipment, including wrestling mats and a balance beam.

Mrs. Marcelle Cockley, senior health teacher, enjoys golf, bridge, and reading. She works for the Red Cross in her spare time.

Miss Diana Martlew, who teaches senior health and girls' physical education, is the girls' basketball coach. She would like to see a Coke machine in the faculty lounge.

William J. Nickey, physical education teacher, is Camp Director at Camp Thompson and a physiotherapist at the Carlisle Hospital.

Miss Carol Lee Swaltek, field hockey coach and physical education instructor, likes reading and sailing.

New Physics Course Proves Challenging

Interests of science teachers vary. L. E. Kauffman, J. J. McDermott, and L. E. Zeiders examine minerals, while H. W. Hall, Jr., R. E. Trostle, W. M. Greaney, C. A. Lickel, and M. L. Rook balance scales.

A spectrometer, interferometer, stroboscope, microbalances, and a ripple tank were new items purchased by the Science Department this year. A new type of physics, P.S.S.C. physics, was added to the study of life, energy, atoms, and chemicals formerly conducted by the Science Department.

John J. McDermott, who teaches chemistry and nuclear science and advises the Science Club, is the Science Fair coach. Also a member of the Cave Hill Nature Center Commission and CASAC, he has written articles on nuclear science. These articles were published in A.E.C. NEWSLETTER and RADIATION BIOLOGY NEWSLETTER.

Marlin L. Rook, Biology I teacher at CHS, raises horses, hunts, and plays the violin in his spare time.

Richard E. Trostle, who teaches Biology I and II, advises the Biology Club. Photography and model building interest him. This past summer he traveled to the New York World's Fair.

Leon E. Zeiders teaches physics and mathematics and advises the Camera Club. This past summer, Mr. Zeiders studied at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science and traveled to the West. His interests are reading, boating, hunting, and electronics.

W. Michael Greaney

Harry W. Hall, Jr.

Leon E. Kauffman

Chester A. Lickel

W. Michael Greaney, teacher of Algebra I, physics and vocational science, enjoys all phases of electronics. He plays the piano, ukelele, and trombone, and has visited the New York World's Fair.

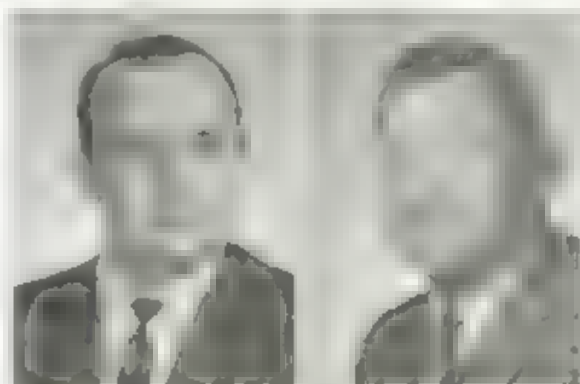

Harry Wesley Hall, Jr., teaches Biology I and is chairman of the Science Fair Committee of CASAC. A member of Lions Club, Mr. Hall was formerly a long distance runner and track coach. He enjoys training and riding horses. Mr. Hall has written a course in OPTICS AND ELECTROMAGNETICS OPTICS for the Air Force.

Leon E. Kauffman instructs chemistry students and helps advise the FTA besides being the Intramural Director. A member of CASAC, he also participates in golf and bowling. He is head of the Science Department at CHS.

Chester A. Lickel teaches Biology I and II and is adviser to the Key Club. He enjoys fishing. He spent last summer at the Carlisle Swim Club.

Vocational Department Prepares for Trades

Preparing students for future employment by providing nearly 1,600 hours of training is the job of the Vocational Department. A new electric furnace, a surface grinder, a blue-print machine, and a co-operative plan, where shop boys work three weeks of a marking period in a local industry, give the students training in work experience.

Charles E. Breneisen instructs Mill and Cabinet work and the Building Trades.

Percy K. Chronister instructs the Opportunity Education class. He is the backfield coach of the varsity football team.

Edgar I. Eastep, the Director of Vocational and Adult Education, enjoys swimming and travel.

Richard James, Jr., who teaches Vocational Auto Mechanics, is the adviser for the Auto Club. He enjoys sailing, photography and wood-working. At Christmas he distributes toys to needy children.

Mrs. Mary M. Kelso, who teaches home economics, instructs the adult tailoring class. She enjoys reading and is president of the women's association of her church.

Harold L. Leshar, industrial arts teacher, advises the Meditation Club. He enjoys photography and antiques and is an officer in the Carlisle Exchange Club.

Charles R. Skovira, the machine shop instructor, advises the Future Machinist Club. Gardening and table tennis are his pastimes.

Mrs. Roma Smith teaches home economics and advises the Home Economics Club. She enjoys art and gardening.

George A. Spaseff, mechanical drawing teacher, is the assistant wrestling coach. He enjoys fishing, boating, traveling, and collecting antiques.

Edmund F. Stevens, who teaches electric shop classes, enjoys electronics and sports and traveled to the New York World's Fair.

Teachers of the Business Department discuss equipment for the new building: D. C. Ocker, Miss E. I. Hedden, A. L. Brown, Miss J. Binner, K. C. Walker, W. J. Kling, and G. L. Bowen, Jr.

Efficient Business Teachers Prepare Able Office Workers

Shorthand II--transcription and business education--economics are two new courses featured in the Commercial Department this year. In addition, five new typewriters were purchased in an effort to turn out better secretaries and clerks.

Miss Joyce Elaine Binner, teacher of office practice, has the responsibility of counting cafeteria money. She enjoys sports, reading, music, and skiing, and vacationed last summer at the seashore and the Pocono Mountains.

George L. Bowen, Jr., teaches Bookkeeping I and II and is kept busy since he is the junior varsity football coach and varsity baseball coach.

Albert L. Brown, who teaches Typing I and II, coordinates our display window. Mr. Brown would like to see better study habits.

Miss Emily Hedden, head of the Commercial Department, instructs Shorthand I, II, transcription, and business education. She advises the senior class and enjoys sewing and traveling. Miss Hedden has had published a pamphlet entitled CAN STUDENT TEACHERS HELP TO STREAMLINE SHORTHAND INSTRUCTION? Her wish is that boys might become interested in taking shorthand.

Wilbur J. Kling teaches elective typing, Typing I, and business mathematics. Among his leisure time activities are collecting coins and archery.

Donald Ocker instructs Bookkeeping I and Typing I, advises the Commercial Club, and is the assistant faculty manager of athletics. Hunting and golf are his special pleasures.

Kenneth C. Walker instructs courses in Stenography I, consumer economics, and note-hand, and advises the junior class, as well as playing the organ at a nearby church. Mr. Walker traveled widely in Europe this past summer. Some of the countries he visited were Poland, Russia, Germany, Denmark, and Sweden.

Senior Class History

As the class of '65 departed from the classrooms and friends to go out to face the world for themselves, they left behind them both good and bad times. In the junior year, the class had a treasury of $300. Other big events of that year were the selection of their class rings and the junior class play, GEORGE WASHINGTON SLEPT HERE. The theme for the prom, TAHITIAN BREEZE, was chosen by the Activities Committee from homeroom nominations. Several students worked hard preparing decorations for the enchanted evening.

From the senior class play, THE HEIRESS, $150 was added to the class treasury. Seniors look forward to the class ride and June banquet. For a change of pace this year, the senior class will take a trip to the New York World's Fair. To pay for the trip, the class raised money by class dues and several dances. Most of all now, seniors look forward to sending out commencement announcements, and to participating in that big event--commencement evening, when diplomas are received.

Senior class officers lead in planning for year's activities.

Junior Leaders Plan Active Year

Serving as members of the Junior Activities Committee was one of the duties of the Junior Class officers. Dick Ehly (president), Patti Sage (vice-president), Molly Ditenhafer (secretary), and Jake Hays (treasurer) also helped select the paid assembly programs for next year and headed the Junior-Senior Prom and Junior Play committees.

The Junior Activities Committee, under the direction of Mr. Kenneth C. Walker and Mrs. Janice Cohen, consisted of one representative from each junior homeroom. Duties included collecting class dues, selecting the Junior Class Play, and serving on various committees for the Prom and Class Play.

Providing leadership for the Sophomore Class of 1965 are Sue Unger (treasurer), Don Bitner (president), Diane Alexander (vice-president), and Phyllis Shoemaker (secretary).

Leadership Experiences Gained

A vital requirement for an efficient class government is strong leaders. Four class officers were elected by their fellow classmates to serve as leaders of the sophomore class of 1965. Various duties were fulfilled by these officers in school and community activities. A few of their duties were collecting class dues and aiding in selecting assembly programs for the coming year.

Another requirement for an efficient government is an active student body. The 1965 sophomore class displayed pride in CHS. High academic standards were set by the class and sophomores contributed to CHS by serving on Student Senate and participating in school sports.

Student Government at CHS is made up two houses: the Council, which consists of the presidents of all the homerooms, and the Senate, composed of four students elected each year from each grade. The officers of student government during the 1964-65 year were as follows: president, John Fletcher; vice president, John Heishman; secretary, Karen Kroesen; and treasurer, Cathy Leshner.

This year the Senate set up buses to take students to the away football games. The Senate also sponsored the annual Homecoming Dance and the Valentine Dance. Another Senate responsibility was the supervision of the Student Lounge.

Because there will be only two grades at the Senior High next year, it was also necessary to revise the constitution.

Homecoming Weekend began on Friday, October 23, when the Thundering Herd defeated Mechanicsburg by a score of 52-0. The seven girls of the Homecoming Court were introduced at the game. On Saturday night Sue Gussman was crowned Homecoming Queen at the annual Homecoming Dance. Music was provided by the "Galaxies," under the direction of Mr. Clyde Barr, and refreshments were provided by the Student Council.

CHS Band Has Busy Year

Resplendent in their new uniforms, the band marched in parades and performed for the crowd at half-time at football games. In addition, the CHS Band, under the direction of Mr. Clyde Barr, also participated in pep rallies, sold refreshments at the basketball games, and took part in the Veterans' Day Services at the Square on November 11, 1964.

Although the contest was canceled because of inclement weather, the band had planned to participate in the Band Marching Contest in Harrisburg. They also sold Prom peanuts to help raise money, which activity Mr. Barr called "Project X." On May 1, 1965, the concert band presented the annual spring concert.

and Varied Performances

Under the direction of Mrs. Joan Boytim, the CHS choir made numerous appearances for the student body and the public, with approximately twelve solos in every concert. Singing both sacred and secular numbers, the choir presented its annual concert at Christmas and in the spring, with a double chorus used in the Christmas concert. Several selections, both accompanied and unaccompanied, from these concerts were offered in school assemblies and to various area groups including the Kiwanis Club and the Rotary Club. The choir sang at the District Sunday School Convention in September and also performed at the Jr. High in April.

In District Chorus tryouts with over 750 pupils competing, representing about 80 schools, CHS had the largest number accepted. Participating as a result, at Wrightville on February 25-27, were D. Williams, first soprano; M. Hair, second soprano; B. Campbell, D. Ehly, and R. Weimer, first tenors; T. Kehler and R. Richwine, second tenors; D. Warner and R. Zeigler, first bass; and M. Farrell, second bass.

The choir section leaders are Don Warner, Melinda Rhoads, Debbie Williams, Mary Hair, and John Fletcher.

Many Groups Provide Melody

Developing sight reading by the members and exploring different fields of music were part of the training of the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, under the direction of Mrs. J. Boytim, which sang at concerts and some special school assemblies. These groups also trained for future choir work.

The Girls' Ensemble and the Boys' Octet also entertained for different school occasions. Members were selected from try-outs and only choir members were selected.

Under the direction of the CHS band instructor, Mr. Clyde Barr, the Galaxies provided good dance music for several school occasions this year. They played at the Homecoming Dance on October 24, the Christmas Dance at Dover High School on December 19, and the CHS Valentine Dance.

"I like this idea," C. Kornet tells J. Konhaus as Miss Isabelle Hoover (adviser), K. Lightner, T. Neiles (faculty editor), R. Stover (sports editor), and L. Brubaker evaluate coverage in the '64 yearbook.

"Bleed this picture!" "Follow the style sheet." "When is the deadline?" These were some of the remarks heard as the ORACLE staff bent every effort to produce a good yearbook. Approximately 1,000 ORACLES were sold this year. Miss Isabelle Hoover, adviser, said, "The '65 staff worked hard to produce an ORACLE that will receive a first place rating in Pennsylvania as the '64 book did."

Among the many jobs of the staff were taking pictures, writing copy, cropping photos, doing layouts, obtaining advertisements and subscriptions, and keeping a complete story of the year.

Periscope Staff Is Always Busy

One of the many busy groups in CHS is the PERISCOPE Staff, advised by Miss Dilys Schuettler.

The staff issued ten copies of the PERISCOPE which kept the students informed of all the events at CHS.

The staff also edited the Handbook at the end of the year and provided a school column in the SENTINEL. Giving radio news was a new feature of the staff this year.

Gathering news of sports, writing feature articles, and proofreading galley sheets and pages were just a few of the many jobs of the staff.

Cindy Benner (co-editor), Bonnie Magee (feature editor), Dale Shughart (sports editor), and Bonnie Hoch (co-editor) gather around to see the first issue of the PERISCOPE.

November 21, 1964, was the date of "The Heiress," the senior class play, under the direction of Warren Beckman. The student director was Sue Spangler.

The setting of the play is New York in the 1850's. The story told of a modest young girl who fell in love with a fortune hunter. When she learned that he was interested only in her money, she went back to living in her own quiet world and found revenge when he came back to propose a second time.

FTA Plans for Teaching Careers

Advisors Richard Hammann, Leon Kauffman and Miss Isabelle Hoover meet with officers of the FTA, Don Seibert (pres.), Sue Remaly (vice-pres.), Phyllis Shoemaker (sec.), and Barbara McCoy (treas.), to plan programs for the year.

Under its advisers, Miss Isabelle Hoover, Richard Hammann, and Leon Kauffman, the Future Teachers' Club visited Gettysburg College on November 16 for a tour of the campus and a conference with admissions personnel. The club also held a Christmas party for members in December. During National Education Week the club presented each teacher and administrator in the building with a package of cookies. Prior to student teaching, the club heard Mr. Leo Johns and Mr. Lester Etter speak on choosing colleges and the fields of service open to teachers. A panel of student teachers told of their teaching problems and satisfactions. Mr. Harold North, assistant superintendent of schools, spoke on qualities of good teachers. Kazuko Goto, exchange student, compared education in Japan with that of CHS.

Upper class members of FTA were encouraged to practice their teaching skills by student teaching after observing in the Carlisle School System. The club, which meets the first and third Mondays of the month, is open to all students interested in teaching.

Students Learn Acting Skills

Under the direction of Mr. Warren Beckman, the Dramatics Club chose scenes from various plays and acted them for the group. Meeting on the first and third Mondays of each month, the club members sought to improve dramatic skills through practical acting experience. The club was open to all students interested in drama, and often it was possible through working on club activities to gain points for Thespian initiation.

Thespian Troupe, number 214, under Mrs. Helen Ward, adviser, produced the annual Children's Play in the Spring, and a Thanksgiving play at Boster Library. They also did various skits and plays for the benefit of the schools and community. A play cast was entered in competition in Harrisburg. Initiation into Thespians requires ten points, earned by participation in either Thespian or Dramatic Club events.

CHS Students Gain Insight into

During Auto Club meetings, members saw and participated in demonstrations on the assembly of an automobile and discovered the workings of automatic transmissions. Filmstrips were shown by their adviser, Mr. Richard James, to illustrate car maintenance and safety.

During FMA club periods members worked on projects of their own choosing. With the help of their adviser, Mr. Charles Skovira, members learned new skills on machine equipment. Members were also instructed in safety rules for the heavy equipment with which they worked.

This year's Biology Club emphasized the growing and observation of plants in the greenhouse, under the supervision of Mr. Richard Trostle. The club also made an intense study of microscopic plants and animals. Club members used some of the club periods for work on independent projects.

Students with a strong interest in pursuing the fascinating field of science enjoyed Science Club periods where they could advance their knowledge under the guidance of Mr. John McDermott. During club periods many members sought help with science fair projects.

A touch of winter sets in on Sunnyside Park.

With eight months still to go, construction of the Carlisle Intermediate High School nears completion.

Accent on Progress Is Noted in Area

Activities of the Carlisle area, as well as those on the international scene, have interested the students at CHS this year. Many new establishments were either begun or completed. Among these are the new fraternity houses on the Dickinson College campus, the Carlisle Plaza, the Cave Hill Nature Center, and Sunnyside Park, a new recreation area. To add to the educational facilities in Carlisle, a new intermediate high school, which will house ninth and tenth graders, is nearing completion.

New leaders, new buildings, new recreational areas--all have highlighted the school year of 1964-65.

New Leaders Highlight World Activities

During the course of this year, many nations of the world have elected or appointed new leaders for their people. The election in the United States proved a landslide victory for Lyndon B. Johnson. At the death of King George of Greece, his son Constantine ascended to the throne. In England the Labor Party proved the victor in the election, while in the Soviet Union, Brezhnev and Kosygin took command. In several other countries, including Japan and India, new leaders came to the fore.

New leaders appeared not only in the political world but also in the world of sports. The 1964 Olympic Games in Japan ended with the United States as the leading gold medal winner. In baseball the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the New York Yankees in four out of the seven games played in the World Series.

Baseball Teams End the '64 Season

The '64 CHS baseball team ended its season with a record of six wins and eight losses. These results put Carlisle in fourth place in the West Shore League. The varsity's hitting was led by Mike Kazor who had a .425 batting average. He was followed by Jerry March (.415); Allen Fisher (.410); and Denny Shank with .325. Shank and Kazor also hit home runs.

1964 Track Team Makes Good

The CHS track team, coached by Stanley Morgan and William Nickey, rolled up a 6-1 dual meet record and a first place at the Shippensburg Invitational. In producing this record the herd also placed third at both the Cedar Cliff Relays and the Chambersburg Invitational. At the District Three Meet the CHS team placed fifth, and at the PIAA State Championship meet the Herd placed seventh producing one state champion, in the shotput; one runner-up, in the high hurdles; and a fifth place, in the discus.

Five members of the track team set records in five different events. State Champion Bert Nye set a record of 57 ft., 9 1/2 in., in the shotput. Ken Palmer set a record of 14.6 seconds in the high hurdles. Albe Owens set a record of 156 ft., 9 in., in the discus. Lenny McLaughlin, who placed second at the Penn Relays, set a record of 13 ft. in the pole vault, and Gil Wymond set a record of 202 ft., 7 1/2 in., in the javelin.

Loss to Middletown Mars Perfect Season

John Whitehead, with the aid of "braintrusts" Stanley Morgan and Don Trexler, coached the Herd to a 9-1 log. The team, built strongly around twelve lettermen, rolled to a total of 310 points and held their opponents to only 71.

The Green and White debut of the season was in a 33-0 rout of Lower Dauphin, followed by a loss to Middletown 19-21. The Herd then proceeded to down Hershey, Delone Catholic, and Central Dauphin. The following game was the homecoming game with Mechanicsburg. Before a large crowd the Herd inflicted a 52-0 setback on the Wildcats. After tripping up Cumberland Valley and Governor Mifflin by overwhelming scores, the Herd traveled to Chambersburg, where after trailing at halftime they scored 20 points in the second half to defeat the powerful Trojans. The team wound up their season with a 28-6 win over Central Dauphin East.

Season; Second in Three Years

Carlisle High School's JV football team, under the able leadership of Coaches George Bowen and Jim Bowers, had their second undefeated season in three years with the climax of a 7-6 victory over Middletown. The Baby Herd also racked up an undefeated season in 1962, recording a total of eight victories. The 4-2-2 log in 1963 gave the Carlisle JV's a three year record of 19 victories, 2 defeats, and 2 ties. With such a brilliant record for a three year period, CHS students can expect another winning varsity squad in the fall of 1965, when the JV boys move in to fill the spots left open by graduation.

Starting the season with three losses, the varsity's outlook was grim until they rallied to tie high-scoring Cedar Cliff 1-1. Determined players went on to win, ending the season with a 3-5-1 record. According to Miss Carol Swaltek, coach, the team improved as the season progressed.

This year was the first time that a halfback or a right inner has scored. Top scorers were Lana Darhower, 8, and Patty Richcreek, 6. Beverly Burkholder, Maureen McGinn, and Kathy Miller scored one each. Melinda Rhoads, goalie, had 35 saves, and Cindy Humphrey 10.

At the annual tournament held at Dillsburg toward the end of the season, Carlisle proved undefeated in five games against Central Dauphin, Camp Hill, Northern Lebanon, Eastern Lebanon, and Cedar Cliff. Patty Richcreek was named as an all-star player and Lana Darhower received an honorable mention.

Five Teams in Fall Tournaments

After their first game, which resulted in a tie, the junior varsity team lost their next three games. The team recovered and tied Cumberland Valley and then Mechanicsburg. The highlight of their season was a victory over East Pennsboro, Carlisle's longtime hockey rival.

Goals were scored by Shermaine Hodge, 3; Barbara Adams, 2, and Barbara Bailey and Paula Wert, one each. Cindy Humphrey, goalie, had 22 saves, and Melinda Rhoads had 5 saves.

When asked to comment on the JV team, Miss Carol Swaltek, coach, said, "The JV players lacked some of the polish that goes with an experienced team, but they made up for this deficiency with a good fighting spirit." Coach Swaltek added that participating in school competition has helped the players acquire the experience they need. Ten JV players will be returning next year.

Second Season with High Hopes

The varsity and JV girls' basketball teams opened their 1965 season on January 5 with a game at Susquenita. The opening game found the Carlisle girls successful, winning the JV game 23 to 4 and the varsity scrap 16 to 14.

The teams also played Mechanicsburg in a non-conference game early in the season. Both teams bowed to a powerful Mechanicsburg squad; however, this did not affect their conference record. The teams played ten games this year, ending the season with a game at Camp Hill on February 5.

The varsity squad ended the season with a record of 4 wins and 6 losses, while the JV's finished with a log of 5 triumphs and 6 defeats.

Height Aided Basketball Team

Buddy Eavenson leads the charge for the ball against Mechanicsburg

This year's varsity basketball team was made up of eight seniors and five juniors, with a total of six returning lettermen. The team had trouble getting started, but grew stronger with experience and ended the season with a record of 16 wins and 6 losses. The Herd's District III hopes were shattered by a defeat by a strong Chambersburg five by a score of 74-49.

The green and white colors were carried to the Cumberland -- Franklin County All-Star game by Vince Schafmeister and Mike Kazor for Cumberland County. In this game Vince Schafmeister won the most valuable player award.

After being stopped on a drive, Allen Fisher hands off to Don Seibert.

By taking a quick jump shot from the key, John Heishman tallies for CHS.

Steve McBride watches as his teammate Greg Lewis, passes the ball.

Greg Hertzler makes a desperate effort to retain possession.

As Scott Shank waits to assist, Ed Hall makes an easy lay-up.

Ed Hall hands off to Chuck Seibert as Bill Fulton towers overhead.

Success Came to the JV's in '65

Coached by Wes James, the JV basketball team had a winning season in 1964-1965. The team won several close games against York Catholic, Hanover, and Chambersburg, and compiled a won-lost record of 17-4.

Bill Bogar, Bill Fulton, Ed Hall, Greg Hertzler, Terry Keiser, Ed Lewis, Dave Lutz, Steve Martson, Steve McBride, Chuck Seibert, Scott Shank, and Gary Worley made up the team and were substituted freely.

Since the team was composed entirely of sophomores, much can be expected for the future of basketball at CHS.

While the visiting team takes a shot at the charity line, Coach James points out to Steve McBride weaknesses in Chambersburg's defense.

After tying up with his opponent, Don Warner maneuvers for a takedown.

Dropping in for a double leg takedown proves effective for Dennis Stone.

Jeb Billet sinks his half as he attempts to score a fall against Shippensburg.

Five Lettermen Return to Squad

With the loss of all but five varsity wrestlers, this year's team under the direction of Coach William Woods, suffered from inexperience. The eight positions vacated by last year's graduates were filled by four juniors, three sophomores, and one freshman. The 10-4 record doesn't indicate the spirit with which these boys wrestled. The JV's, under the direction of George Spaseff, achieved a 10-3 record and will furnish replacements for this year's graduates.

Among the outstanding performers this year were Mike Baltimore and Dennis Stone. Baltimore won the Northern Tournament 112 lb. crown while Stone placed second at 138 lbs. Baltimore also placed first in the Sectional Tournament and was a District III semi-finalist.

For the second year in a row, the Herd placed high in the Capital Area Conference. Though the JV's are in no conference, they gained much valuable experience and should help make up a better team for next year.

Mike Baltimore struggles for a takedown against his Mechanicsburg opponent.

Avoiding trouble, Jim Hodge follows as his opponent sits on the mat.

Wrestling Increases in Popularity

As wrestling increases in popularity, the crowds grow in population.

Using a variation of the snapdown, Harold Statler reverses his opponent.

'Don't get too high' thinks Good year as he rides his man.

Coaches Woods and Spaseff discuss the match with Denny McLaughlin.

Skip Bowen bridges to escape his opponent's pinning combination.

Don Seibert eagerly accepts his varsity football letter from Coach Whitehead.

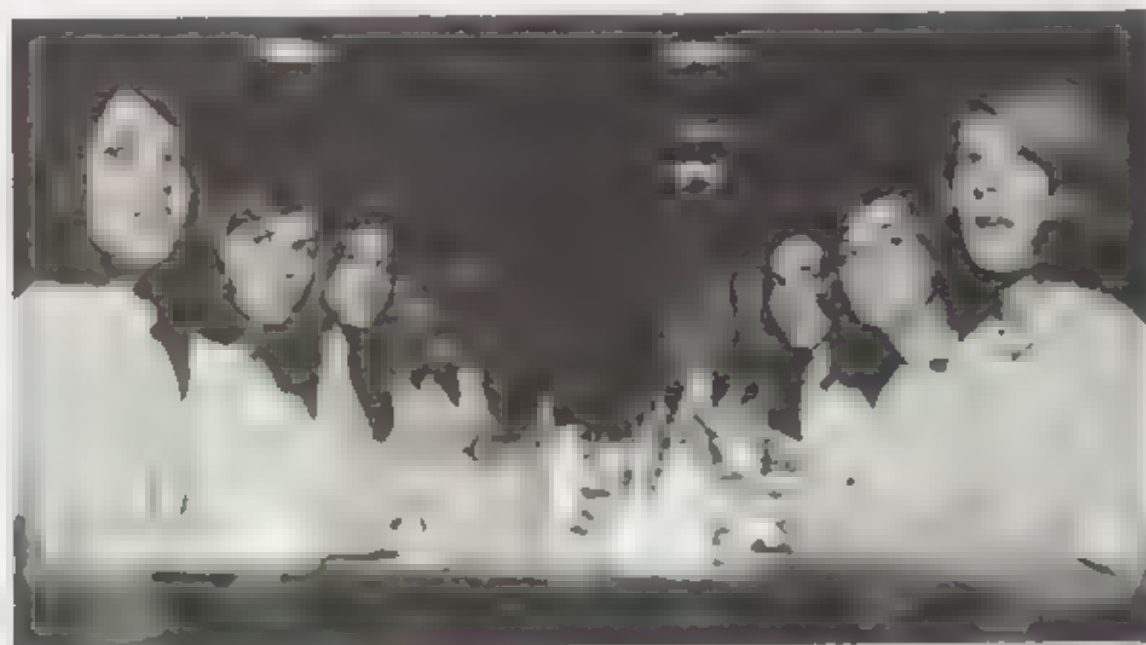

As Maureen McGinn looks on, Miss Swaltek presents Lana Darhower with her varsity hockey letter.

Greg Stone examines his newly received letter and looks forward to two more successful years.

Fall Sports Banquet Honors CHS Football and Hockey Teams

L. Miller, C. Slank, P. Loney, L. Sperting, Miss M. Merkle (adviser), D. Naggle, V. Lehman, N. Shoemaker, L. Grissinger, and P. Drapps, the CHS cheerleaders, served as waitresses for the banquet.

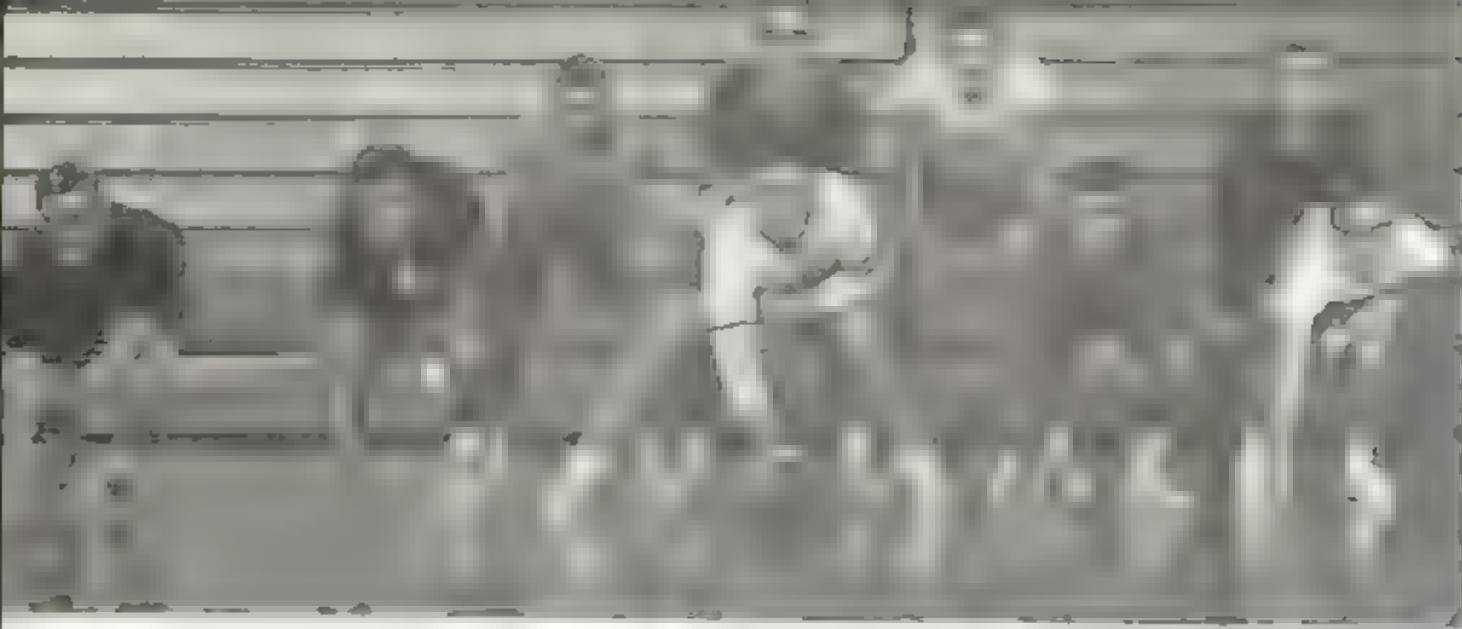

William McHenry, guest speaker from Lebanon Valley College, related some personal experiences in athletics.

Idana Padjen and Becky Graham both earned varsity letters for hockey.

For a job well done, Coach Whitehead awards Rick Martson his varsity letter.

Intramural Football and Soccer Champions Crowned

Touch football and soccer in the fall, basketball and ping-pong in the winter, and volleyball, tennis, and softball in the spring constitute the intramural program at CHS. Intramural sports provide playing time for students who don't have a chance to play interscholastic sports. The intramural program is headed by Mr. Leon Kauffman, Miss Carol Swaltek, and Miss Diana Martlew.

Commencement Exercises Closed Out the Busy Year of 1965

In January Sue Connolly displays what she will look like on commencement evening as Ira Landis,

John Leorich, Linda Lehman, and Alan Davis look on with interest.

Finale

As another year ends at Carlisle High School, many goals have been reached. Sophomores have finished their first year of senior high, and juniors have taken another step towards becoming seniors. The biggest step of all is yet to be made. Seniors must now decide what this next step will be. They have been guided through their first twelve years of learning, but further education will depend on personal effort. It is now up to each individual to decide what he will make of his life and how he will affect the world outside Carlisle High School. The ORACLE staff hopes that as these students climb towards their goal, this book will serve as a reminder of the knowledge gained and of the friends made at Carlisle High School.

In Appreciation

The ORACLE staff of '65 wishes to extend its appreciation to the American Yearbook Company, publishers, and Mr. Neil Layser, yearbook representative; to Sterling Studios, Harrisburg, and the SENTINEL, for photographs; to Chris Irwin and Frances Warlow, for art assistance; and to all other members of the student body and faculty who helped make this '65 yearbook possible.

Don,

to a real great guy, too had you couldn't stay for your senior year at C.H.S. Good luck in the future

Jim Hughes

Don, tremendous
To a hope Calif. was guy - I hope Calif. was as great as Calif. Good Luck,
Dick Myle
